1. This saving faith puts you right with God and causes you to put yourself right with your fellow men. It makes you clean up your past, it leaves nothing hidden, it gets into every musty old corner and cleans out the dirt there. It makes you right your past wrongs in so far as you can possibly do so. It takes away everything that speaks to you of guilt and condemnation.

This saving faith makes you law-abiding.

2. This saving faith enables you to overcome all obstacles and face whatever ridicule may be thrown at you for your stand with God and right.

3. This saving faith makes you trust Jesus Christ, put all your wieght on Him. It means staking the whole of your life on the Living Word of God.

III. If you want such a saving faith you must meet the conditions. Hand yourself over to the care and direction of God.

You want to be saved for a career of an engineer; you put yourself in charge of the head of the institution of engineering, and you are assigned under certain instructors who direct you in your studies and work until you are fitted for an engineering career.

You want to be saved for perfect being, for eternal living. You must put yourself under the care and direction in charge of God who gives you over to the care and direction of Jesus Christ. You must follow Him and be his disciple(pupil)

Conclusion. Make the surrender, meet the condition

1. The little boy who could'nt shake hands because he held it full of marbles. His playthings. God holds out a saving hand to you, blood-stained and pierced. The child had his marbles; what playthings have you got that prevent you from taking God's hand of salvation?

Three classes of members- a few unfaithful, many indifferent, a few faithful ones.
